HARROGATE INTERNATIONAL FESTIVALS

28th April 2017

Dear Dr. Dilworth

On behalf of the Harrogate Music Festival I wish to invite you to stage a concert by your festival choir in July 2019.

The Festival presents the best of England and the world's music and culture annually and is recognised as the "North of England's leading arts Festival" by The Times.

We would be pleased to welcome you and your participating choirs, both individually and as the combined festival ensemble, as one of our major 2019 offerings featuring alongside our programmes of literature, science and music with previous artists including Wynton Marsalis, BB King, Mariza & Youssou N'Dour alongside traditional classical ensembles such as Alfred Brendel, Arcadia Volodos and the world's leading classical orchestras.

You may also be interested to know that our Patron is HRH The Prince of Wales and our Honorary President is Dame Fanny Waterman DBE, with whom we have a very close working partnership.

Please know you and your choristers will be assured of a warm welcome, an enthusiastic audience and an outstanding range of venue choices.

Harrogate as a destination boasts an historic reputation as Europe's premier spa resort and is surrounded by stunning countryside, bustling market towns, history, culture and adventure and is the ideal focus for a high profile cultural and music season within the UK.

We look forward to hosting you and the magnificent talent you will be bringing with you.

Yours sincerely,

Sharon Canavar
Chief Executive

Dear Friends

We have been invited to form a combined choir to perform as part of the esteemed Harrogate Music Festival in 2019.

I would be honored if you and your singers would consider an invitation to join us for rehearsals and a gala concert as well as individual concerts in London before we head North to Harrogate.

The Harrogate Music Festival is the jewel in the crown of the Harrogate International Festivals program and we are to be a featured guest event. Previously, the breathtaking Royal Hall in Harrogate has been the venue for KIconcerts gala concerts in the Harrogate Music Festival and we hope it might be again for us in 2019.

Harrogate is far from the hustle and bustle of London, a gracious spa town just 30 minutes from York (and the York Minster!). I know you will enjoy the contrast between London and North Yorkshire where Harrogate is situated.

Be in touch with me for further information on the musical elements of this festival and with KIconcerts for touring information.

See you in England
