HIGHLIGHTS

A musical people

Great venues

The whimsy of the Irish

Occasional leprechauns

And 4 leaf clovers

DUBLIN

DAY 1: DEPART

Depart home

DAY 2: DUBLIN

Arrive in Dublin and, after clearing customs and immigration, meet your KIconcerts Tour Manager to commence an introductory tour of Ireland's Capital City. After time for lunch, check into your hotel before the first of your fine daily dinners. Overnight Dublin

DAY 3: DUBLIN

After sampling the hot and cold breakfast buffet (offered daily) you will have a chance to visit Trinity College where one of the students will guide you through this ancient campus, home of the famous book of Kells, an 8th century illuminated manuscript. Prepare for your first CONCERT and, if you choose it to be with one of Dublin's fine ensembles, then there's also time to meet with the locals, rehearse a combined finale and enjoy Irish camaraderie. Overnight Dublin

Dublin Castle

Library of Trinity College

Trinity College

DAY 4: DUBLIN

You are invited to start the day with a tour of St. Patrick's Cathedral which stands on the oldest Christian site in Dublin where it is said that the Saint baptized converts to the Christian faith. A lunchtime CONCERT could follow in one of Dublin's fine cathedrals and then perhaps you could enjoy a Riverdance workshop with dancers who have performed in the show. Take some time to explore Dublin before dinner. Overnight Dublin

DAY 5: DUBLIN | HOWTH

This morning there is an option to have a masterclass with Anúna (Michael McGlynn's choir), one of the finest 'voices of Ireland' today. After a visit to the charming fishing village of Howth on Dublin Bay you will have time to prepare for your final CONCERT of the tour. Overnight Dublin

DAY 6: WICKLOW | DUBLIN

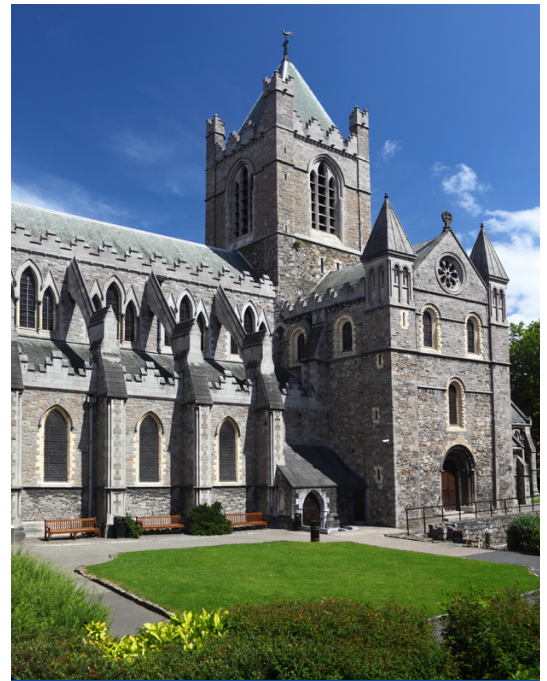

Visit the 'Garden of Ireland' in county Wicklow including a visit to Glendalough, a place of ancient pilgrimage, dating back to the 6th century founded by St Kevin. Your drive out into the Irish countryside offers a chance to look out for 4 leaf clovers and leprechauns as well as to appreciate the glorious country side of this island. Your farewell dinner will be accompanied by live Irish music. Overnight Dublin

DAY 7: DUBLIN

Transfer to airport and travel back home or extend tour
